

Internship Position

FeelGood Metrics & Evaluations

Fall 2021

---

The Hunger Project (THP) is a global non-profit organization whose mission is to end hunger and poverty by pioneering sustainable, grassroots, women-centered strategies and advocating for their widespread adoption in regions where hunger persists. We operate in 22 countries with 350 staff and have mobilized 395,000 volunteer leaders worldwide. Our programs throughout Africa, South Asia and Latin America are based on an innovative, holistic approach, which empowers women and men living in rural villages to become the agents of their own development and make sustainable progress in overcoming hunger and poverty.

Position Summary

Are you passionate about international affairs and international development work? Would you like an internship with a global organization working to empower women and men to end their own hunger and poverty? Are you interested in data and the application of new learnings and findings? Then you should join our Investor Engagement Team!

The Hunger Project is seeking individuals with a passion for serving others and an interest in supporting our work during Fall 2021. This is a part time, unpaid, remote internship. If you think that this internship may satisfy the requirements for academic credit or an internship stipend program from your school or local communities, we will be happy to complete and support the request for funding.

This is an opportunity for passionate, creative and adaptable individuals who are eager to learn and develop the Metrics & Evaluation (M&E) system, and create new evaluation tools for the Investor Engagement team. These individuals will build relationships, grow their mindset and skills as they eagerly put into practice their formal educational training.

Key Responsibilities

Specific responsibilities include:

- Support the development of standard tools and methodologies for THP's M&E system, specifically for our youth engagement leadership and volunteer program, FeelGood
- Assist with the creation of THP M&E guides and manuals
- Review and update current evaluation tools and surveys
- Develop new evaluation tools to determine the effectiveness of FeelGood program initiatives and determine the health of Chapters on campuses
- Other administrative and support tasks as needed by the M&E team

Qualifications

Required qualifications:

- Interest and educational background and/or work experience in, statistics, programming, international development, or other related areas
- Resourceful and able to work independently
- Highly organized, detail-oriented and committed to accuracy
- Proficient in Word and Excel
- Previous experience with M&E tools and methodologies (deriving samples, designing surveys, logical frameworks, data analysis) especially where applied in rural international settings with minimal infrastructure

Preferred qualifications:

- Currently seeking a degree in International Development, Political Science, Social Statistics, or related field
- Knowledgeable about open-source mapping software (not required, definite plus)
- Speaks Spanish, French, or Portuguese

How to Apply

To apply you must send a cover letter and resume to investorengagement@thp.org by July 23,2021. Please do not apply directly through this career platform.

This is a part time, unpaid, remote internship. If you think that this internship may satisfy the requirements for academic credit or an internship stipend program from your school or local communities, we will be happy to complete and support the request for funding.
